"Rock & Roll belongs on top" is the moral core that River Lynch & The Spiritmakers live by. Based out of Rochester NY, their bluesy, hook-filled, vintage sound is comparable to the Alabama Shakes, Tom Petty and The Shelters. In 2016, they released their debut EP, There Goes The Heart. The band have been performing in Rochester, NYC and Canada. In October 2017, they released their single "Straight Through", which was described by Buffablog.com as "a call to arms to fellow rock revivalists ready to reassert the primacy of rock music". River and his band set out every night to wake the spirits of the past, create music for the future and remind people of the power of Rock & Roll music.
